

Make a Cockatoo Shadow Puppet

The Sulphur-Crested Cockatoo can be found all over Australia. They are kind of big and loud and are known as very curious and smart birds. After you've colored this pair of cockatoos, get a parent to help you cut them out and attach the wings with a round-head fastener. Then tape or glue your cockatoo to a popsicle stick and it's ready to fly!

